Thought for the Week

Trinity Sunday is the only day in the church calendar specifically set aside for a doctrine of the church. It makes sense then when some congregations 'skip' it all together or take advantage of the challenge and invite a guest preacher into the pulpit. It is no secret that the bible does not – in specific terms – refer to the doctrine of the Trinity. There are, however, plenty of references to the three persons of the trinity.

So what do we make of this day and these readings? First and foremost, our Romans reading speaks of the unconditional love and grace we have "access to" through Jesus Christ. Some may use these passages to proclaim God in trinity and guide those listening into the season of Ordinary Time, speaking of God repeatedly saving and re-creating through the Spirit.

Then there is our passage from Proverbs where Lady Wisdom features prominently. I've always loved the strong and explicit imagery the writer uses to give us the image of this 'person' through whom, the creator has fashioned everything, especially humanity. Tom Wright enhances this image when he says "To embrace Wisdom is thus to discover the secret of being truly human, of reflecting God's image".

The Celtic saints had a way invoking God in Three not to try and solve centuries old questions of "how" but to enter into God's mystery. That – my friends – is the true purpose of Trinity Sunday for us as a church in the 21st Century. Not to reinforce doctrines and creeds or to take confusing adventures into trinitarian apologetics, but that after the high festival of Easter – starting with the resurrection and climaxing with the spirit-filled Pentecost – to enter into some of the mystery of God and allowing that to guide us through ordinary time – which, like the grace of God is far from ordinary and takes us to unexpected places.

PRAYERS

Pray for those in our Church Family undergoing tests, treatment, and for those suffering bereavement.

Pray for the students & families and staff of Wollongong West Primary School and all Keiraview's mentors.

A Prayer from UCA Lectionary

God of delight, your Wisdom sings your Word at the crossroads where humanity and divinity meet. Invite us into your joyful being where you know and are known in each beginning, in all sustenance, in every redemption, that we may manifest your unity in the diverse ministries you entrust to us, truly reflecting your triune majesty in the faith that acts, in the hope that does not disappoint, and in the love that endures. Amen.

Ethical Shopping How can our shopping choices drive demand for more ethical, sustainable and traceable products?

By shopping ethically, you're making a choice to say no to injustice, waste and unsustainable practices. Over-consumption of fast fashion, food and cheap tech gadgets takes a huge toll on the environment.
